Scripture references:

Matthew 13:3-8

Then He spoke many things to them in parables, saying: "Behold, a sower went out to sow. And as he sowed, some seed fell by the wayside; and the birds came and devoured them. Some fell on stony places, where they did not have much earth; and they immediately sprang up because they had no depth of earth. But when the sun was up they were scorched, and because they had no root they withered away. And some fell among thorns, and the thorns sprang up and choked them. But others fell on good ground and yielded a crop: some a hundredfold, some sixty, some thirty.

Isaiah 32:20

Blessed are you who sow beside all waters, who send out freely the feet of the ox and the donkey.

Ecclesiastes 11:6

In the morning sow your seed, and in the evening do not withhold your hand; For you do not know which will prosper, either this or that, or whether both alike will be good.

Proverbs 11:30

The fruit of the righteous is a tree of life, and he who wins souls is wise.
