Ranan-to creak (or emit a stridulous sound), i.e. to shout (usually for joy)

Sing praises:

Zamar-the idea of striking with the fingers; properly, to touch the strings or parts of a musical instrument, i.e. play upon it; to make music, accompanied by the voice; hence to celebrate in song and music

Verse 5

Sing:

Zamar-the idea of striking with the fingers; properly, to touch the strings or parts of a musical instrument, i.e. play upon it; to make music, accompanied by the voice; hence to celebrate in song and music

Harp:

Kinnowr-to twang; a harp: -harp

Sound: (Voice in King James)

Qowl-to call aloud; a voice or sound

Psalm:

Zimrah-a musical piece or song to be accompanied by an instrument

Verse 6

Trumpet:

Chatsotserah-a trumpet (from its sundered or quavering note)

Horn: (Cornet in King James)

Showphar-a cornet (as giving a clear sound) or curved horn

Shout joyfully: (Joyful noise in King James)

Ruwa-to mar (especially by breaking); figuratively, to split the ears (with sound), i.e. shout (for alarm or joy)

In this psalm the psalmist encourages the use of stringed and wind instruments in joyful praise to the Lord. According to the Hebrew words used in these verses this joyful praise in song is to be LOUD. The psalmist even suggests that the sea and rivers join in this loud celebration. He writes in verses 7 & 8, Let the sea roar, and all its fullness, the world and those who dwell in it; 8 Let the rivers clap their hands; let the hills be joyful together before the Lord...
